1 UP AND DOWN Rise-and-fall pendants are a versatile solution for lighting a dining table, especially hung in a row along its length. Pull them up for the maximum spread of illumination or lower them to cast pools of light for evening glamour. Dome Rise & Fall pendants, £262.80 each, Davey Lighting at Original BTC, 020 7351 2130, originalbtc.com.

2 STATEMENT STYLE The star of the show in this elegant library is a sparkling chandelier, which attracts attention whether on or off. A large overmantel mirror enhances the dramatic effect in this room by Cochrane Design, 020 7751 0075, cochranedesign.com. For a similar chandelier, try the Buckingham, £2,250, India Jane, 020 8799 7166, indiajane.co.uk.

3 WELCOME HOME A classic lantern creates a smart focal point in an entrance hall, while the burnished metal finish adds subtle warmth. Hector Finch, 020 7731 8886, hectorfinch.com, offers a selection of hanging lanterns in a choice of finishes, with prices starting at £763.20 for a large Chelsea lantern similar to the design shown here.

4 TAKE TWO Hanging a pair of pendants from swagged cables at different heights creates a casual effect beside a sofa or over a table. To order the required cable length, measure from the ceiling rose to the ceiling hook, allow extra for swag, then add the drop. JamJar lamps, from £55 each including 1m of cable; extra cable £3.60m; all JamJar Lights, 0121 439 1790, jamjarlights.com.
